

WISCONSIN
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Интенсивные летние курсы по русскому языку

Summer 2017 Intensive Russian Courses

The UW-Madison Department of German, Nordic, and Slavic is pleased to announce that it will offer Intensive First and Second Year Russian in summer 2017.

Dates: Mid-June to Mid-August

Times: Monday-Friday, 8:50-10:45 am, 12:05-2:10 pm

Courses:

Intensive First Year Russian (Slavic 101-102, 8 credits)

Intensive Second Year Russian (Slavic 117-118, 8 credits)

Tuition (estimate based on summer 2016):

Wisconsin Resident: $2,604

Minnesota Resident: $3,346

Non-Resident: $7,416

Courses are open to anyone! You do not need to be a current UW-Madison student to enroll, but must apply as a special student at least one month in advance. Students with prior experience in Russian from outside of post-secondary educational settings should contact Dr. Anna Tumarkin in advance for a placement test. More information on how to enroll:

www.continuingstudies.wisc.edu/advising/prospective.htm

Housing may be available for those enrolled in courses through the Division of Housing in Merit or Barnard Halls. Summer 2017 housing applications will become available in February. More information on housing: www.housing.wisc.edu/residencehalls/apply Questions?

Dr. Anna Tumarkin

Russian Language Program Director

University of Wisconsin-Madison

atumarki@wisc.edu | 608-262-3498