

Drama for Teaching & Learning

Theatre & Drama/Curriculum & Instruction/Slavic 362

Summer 2017: Accelerated 3 Week Session

May 30 to June 16 // MTWTF // 12:00-3:30 PM

This is a methods course useful for all involved in teaching and learning, including foreign languages. A practical class which includes demonstration and practice with children, there is a focus on creativity and embodied and contextual learning, based on current neurological, psychological, and sociological research.

This class meets in the Eagle Heights Community Center on campus and works with the PreK class in the Eagle's Wing Childcare Center. There is free parking at the Community Center, and the free 80 bus runs regularly from main campus.

Please contact Bridgett at vanderhoof@wisc.edu for more information on the course and on taking credits as a special student.